PETER GREAVES, "Reverie," Forum, 745 Fifth Avenue, (212) 355-4545, through Oct. 23. Mr. Greaves's miniature portraits of attractive young women, each a bit larger than a postage stamp, are marvels of fastidious technique. With a slightly hazy focus and not a single visible stroke of pencil or brush, his tiny, pensive heads seem to emerge as if conjured by sorcery from the dark backgrounds.
